

Golden Nugget to open new poker room

Press staff reports | Posted: Monday, December 19, 2011 1:55 pm

ATLANTIC CITY - When it comes to poker, the Golden Nugget Atlantic City is all in.

The casino, formerly known as Trump Marina Hotel Casino, will open a new poker room on Saturday featuring 20 smoke-free tables for a variety of games, including No Limit, Pot Limit, Texas Hold 'Em, Omaha and 7 Stud.

"We have been very eager to bring this new poker room to the Golden Nugget and we look forward to offering players all of the best games a full-service casino has to offer," Tom Pohlman, Golden Nugget's general manager, said in a statement.

The poker room is part of about $100 million in upgrades to the casino, which was rebranded into the Golden Nugget after parent company Landry's Inc. bought Trump Marina last May for $31 million.